The Republican State Convention met at Louisville, on Wednesday last, and nominated the following ticket, to be voted for next August:

Governor—Col. W. O. Bradley, of Garrard county.

Lieut.-Gov.—Matt. O'Doherty, of Louisville.

Attorney General—Hon. John Feland, of Christian county.

Auditor—R. D. Davis, of Carter county.

Treasurer—J. R. Puryear, of McCracken county.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Rev. Wm. H. Childers, of Pulaski county.

Register of the Land Office—Thomas J. Tinsley, of Muhlenburg county.

After Twenty-five Years.

CORINTH, Miss., Jan. 15, 1887.
Ever since I came out of the war, up to two years ago I had catarrh. At first the disease was very affectionate, but it did not trouble me so much that I could see and nearly every earthen medicine that I saw advertised but I got no permanent relief until two years ago, when I began taking S. S. S. I felt immediate benefit from the medicine, and after taking six bottles I felt like a new man. When I began using the medicine I was in a very bad condition; my digestion was poor. I had rheumatic pains in my knees, and a few other ways of my body.

These unpleasant conditions were remedied at once by Swift's Specific.

I ceased using the medicine after six bottles, because I felt so well that I was entirely cured. This past fall, however, had a relapse—evidently I had stopped taking S. S. S. too soon. So I at once began with the medicine, and am happy to tell you that I am very much improved, my general health being excellent, and the catarrh paid disappeared.

I have great faith in S. S. S. for catarrh and blood impurities, and I recommend it to all my neighbors who are sick. Yours truly,

C. C. Key.

Kansas Letter.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, May 5, 1887.
Hearing so much of Wichita in Frankfort, I thought I would take the trip.

Fifty miles north of Wichita is a flat but good farming country.

After passing Newton, about twenty miles from Wichita, I began looking for the city. The first indication was stakes marking off proposed avenues. One or two I noticed were plowing, as if expecting to raise a crop.

Getting out at the Union Depot, which is a plain frame building, as if the railroad company had not heard of the boom, about three-fourths of a mile on the street cars bring you to the center of the town, which is in a bottom on the Arkansas river, which is bridged over, about 12feet, there being no water in it now, one of the newspapers proposed that it be sprinkled to lay the dust.

On the west side they are building residences, business houses, and two colleges, and they say there are nine located here, but it looks to me that they could have found more healthy locations on the east side.

There are some fine pressed brick four story buildings just about finished, and ten or twelve large brick buildings commenced, including business blocks, Opera House and new Post Office.

In the suburbs, within two miles, they are putting up frame residences by the hundred. The sidewalkers on the business streets are crowded day and night, but they say not so much as in February and March, but I suppose they took the mud and the streets for it then, for it was real estate then, now it is mostly laboring men and mechanics. Good carpenters were there, but stone and lumber have to be brought on the cars and it appears to keep a good many buildings backward, but strangers are coming in on every train, from all over the United States. Restaurants and boarding houses are plenty but the sleeping room limited. Prices run from $5.00 to $7.00 per week.

The streets and stores are well lighted with electric lights, and they have just closed the saloons so, to get anything strong, you have to be sick or make the drug store man think so.

As to the future of this city, there are all sorts of opinions. Some say the eastern men have too much invested here to let it drop; others talk about its position for wholesale trade, but they don't mention manufacturers or gas wells. If railroad and real estate men would make a small fraction of the boom in land in Franklin county that is here, there would be very few but what would vote for railroads, and stand a chance of selling land by the foot instead of acre. If some of them would try, it would pay them better than tobacco.

J. R.

Snipesville.

We are glad to see our friend James Buford out again.

Mrs. L. B. Witt is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Jep. Rarden has a nice, fat cow for sale.

Another wedding about ripe. Look out, boys, some of you will get left.

Mr. David Moore has had two chances for the measles. We hope he will not take them.

Mr. A. J. Greenwell visited his father at Cropper's, on Sunday, last week.

Mr. James Cook sold a fine calf last week to Mr. Greenwell. Price not known.

Mr. John H. Smith spent last Tuesday week with Mr. Jack. Annegrave, near Bridgeport.

Since this was had the third chance for the measles.

Mr. L. V. Chism got dog-bitten or milk-poisoned the first Monday in April, but is all right now.

Miss Ida Semones is teaching a subscription school in Harvie land, and everybody is pleased with her very much.

Mr. Owen B. Quire will leave this week to accept a position in the Planters' Tobacco Warehouse, in Louisville.

Mr. W. R. F. Brawner has been buying land this spring. Price not given. It joins his old farm.

The farmers here are complaining about the ground being hard on account of the hard rain which fell last week.

Rev. T. N. Arnold will preach at Antioch to-morrow morning. The people of Frankfort are especially invited.

We have 13 houses and one blacksmith shop in our town, and all we need now is a company to bore for gas.

Mr. Charles Brawner has moved to his new house, which is the finest in Snipesville. Mr. A. J. Greenwell will commence one on the same plan in a short time.

What has become of the railroad road from Georgetown to Frankfort? The people out here don't hear the whistle. If we do, we just think it is the old E. & N. & N.

SNIPESVILLE DUDES.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was recently afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with the best results. This is the experience of thousands whose relatives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DUBBETT, PROPRIETORS LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,200 hhdas., with receipts for the same period of 2,490 hhdas. Sales since January 1st amount to 43,189 hhdas.

The reports with regard to the prospective crop would indicate that there will be a great reduction in the next planting as compared with former years. And notwithstanding the fact that the large manufacturers of the country have reduced the tobacco they plant, tobacco still our market is gaining strength every week, and Burley tobacco is now materially higher than it was a month or six weeks ago.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for New Year:

Dark Tobacco	$2.25 to $3.00
Common Pipe	4.00 to 4.50
Colony Lugs	4.50 to 6.00
Common Leaf, not colored	4.50 to 6.50
Good Leaf	6.00 to 10.00
Fine Leaf	10.00 to 14.75

Miss ANNA RODGERS,
Room at Freeman House.
34-2m.

On Monday afternoon of last week Mrs. Sam South went into the stable lot, at the residence of her husband, near Jones' Station, four miles from this city, to look after a cow with a young calf, and was attacked by the cow, knocked down and nearly killed by the infuriated animal. Her cries brought a negro man to her assistance, who beat the cow off with a club. When he reached the scene Mrs. South was down and the cow standing over her pressing her neck against the ground with her horns. The only thing which saved her neck from being broken was the cow's horns were crumpled the points turning in towards the head. Had the horns been straight she would certainly have been killed. She was fearfully bruised about the neck and body. The cow was one which had been used as a milker for years and had never shown signs of viciousness before.

The Southern Baptist Convention, representing a membership of over 1,600,000, after having been in session at Louisville since Friday last, adjourned on Tuesday evening, to meet next year at Richmond, Va. Taken altogether this was one of the most enthusiastic and enjoyable meetings ever held by this Convention.

It is seldom that you can see 1,200 preachers together, and with as many able and eloquent men among them, all ready and willing to stand up fearlessly for the Master's cause.

Many parents, having children to educate, underestimate the value of regular attendance at school. It is unreasonable to expect a scholar to keep up with his class when he is allowed to be away from the recitations three or four days or more in a month. As a general rule, sickness should be the only cause of absence, but many parents keep their children at home every rainy day. The healthiest and strongest children, and the best learners, are those who attend in all sorts of weather.

The many friends of Ensign Hugh Rodman, in this city, were rejoiced to learn that, after a careful investigation of the matter, he was acquitted of all blame or negligence as an officer in the handling of the torpedoes which so unfortunately exploded in Chinese waters, thereby killing one man and wounding another.

We expressed the hope and belief, at the time the accident occurred, that an investigation would acquit Hugh, as it has done.

On Tuesday, May 31st, Albert G. Bacon Post, No. 33, G. A. R., will "decorate the graves of the many Federal soldiers buried in the cemetery at this place. All the Union soldiers in the county are invited to participate in the ceremonies. The ladies are requested to contribute flowers, and honor the occasion with their presence. The special order of the Grand Commander will be given in our next issue.

Miss Jennie Bowman, the young lady so cruelly assaulted and beaten by the ruffians Turner and Patterson, died at the residence of Mr. A. Y. Johnson, her employer, on Monday evening last, at 9:15 o'clock. Now let the punishment of her murderers be swift and sure, but legal.

The following extract from the letter of a friend and former Frankfort boy is given with a pardonable pride. Our friend is one whose good opinion is worth having, and is what we are striving for as editors of a home paper:

It would be quite a hardship to me to be deprived of the ROUNDABOUT. It comes as a welcome visitor, and its budget of news is always eagerly read. I lay aside the New York and Philadelphia dailies at any time to get a glimpse of the ROUNDABOUT. Besides the pleasure of learning what is transpiring "at home"—Frankfort will always be "home" to me—there is a satisfaction in reading a clean, moral sheet that is not filled with all kinds of filth.

May your paper have a wider circulation and increase in usefulness and prosperity. Your friend truly,

Over 3 pounds of pork for 25 cents, at C. W. & H. Finch's. 35-1t.

At Swigert's Elmendorf sale of thoroughbreds Saturday, the aggregate was $49,225. Sixteen colts aggregated $22,050, average $1,424, and twenty fillies brought $26,950, an average of $1,094. This beats the prices realized at Woodburn, which we publish in another column. We are glad to see our old friend Swigert reaping a rich reward for his faithful and honest work.

Fresh beef from 4 to 10 cents, at C. W. & H. Finch's. 35-1t.

The Effects of Mental Exhaustion.
Many diseases, especially those of the nervous system, are the products of daily mental exertion. These diseases often involve an amount of mental wear and tear very prejudicial to physical health, and the professions, ifarduously pursued, are not destined to remain nerveless. It is one of the most important attributes of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that it compensates for the untiring efforts of the brain to give energy to the brain and nerves. The rapidity with which it removes weakness and fatigue, and shows that its invigorating properties are of the highest order. Besides its effects on the nervous system, it cures and prevents fever andague, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, epiphora, constipation, kidney and uterine weakness and other complaints. Physicians also commend it as a medicated stimulant and remedy.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Several from this and Woodlake neighborhood visited Louisville, this week.

Dr. Ginn and wife, who reside near Stampingground, have been visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Katie Cannon and Miss Bettie Jones spent last Monday with Miss Susie Wilkerson, near White Sulphur.

Mr. W. S. Dowden, wife and daughter, Miss Daisy, of Missouri, have been here visiting Mr. T. F. Cannon and family. They left for Lexington last Saturday.

Mrs. Sallie W. Burdin has a quantity of chrysanthemums which she wishes to sell at the following prices: First variety 10 cents, 3 for 25 cents, 10 for 75 cents; by mail, larger plants, different prices, according to size. Address all orders plain to Mrs. Sallie W. Burdin, Forks of Elkhorn, Franklin county, Ky.

We had a very pleasant trip to Louisville last Sunday, in company with Mr. F. M. Featherston. On the train we met Mr. Wash. Crutcher, (W. T.) We arrived in the city all right and started for Broadway Church, met Bro. Sampy, and after a brief conversation, we concluded to go to Fourth and Walnut. Sunday-school being in session, we entered and enjoyed the exercises very much. According to the Secretary's report there were 1,200 present. At 11 a. m. we heard a splendid sermon from Dr. P. S. Henson, of Chicago. We met Bro. F. W. Morgan and Bro. Z. T. Cody there, and went with them to the Waverly Hotel and dined. At 3 p. m. we went back to the Walnut street church and listened to our mission Revs. Schierev, of St. Petersburg, Russia; Bagby, of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Powell, of Saltillo, Mexico; Eubank, of Logas, Africa; and Dias, of Cuba. Each brother gave a brief description of his field of labor, which was very interesting. In the evening we heard Bro. Hawthorne, of Atlanta, Georgia. We left at 11 o'clock and arrived home at 3:30 a. m.

Editor Roundabout:

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arneia Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arneia Salve at 25c per box by Jos. Le-

Compte, 35-1t.

A Grand Record.

We call your attention to the advertisement of a remedy which has stood the test of more than a half century with increasing popularity and is universally admitted to have no equal as a remedy for the cure of diseases originating in a disordered Liver, such as Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation, Headache, Colic, etc. Simmons Liver regulator is simple and harmless, purely vegetable, and can be safely and advantageously used by all ages, children, adults, and acts mildly and effectively, and is especially valuable as a Family Medicine, which position it holds in so many homes. We do not know another preparation which can bring forward such endorsements from heads of families and those holding the highest official and social positions.

We call your attention to the Simmons Liver Regulator, in our home, to help reduce your doctor's bill and insure for your family's health and happiness.

It seems strange, but it is nevertheless true, that the world contains people who will try to imitate, counterfeit or substitute something else for a genuine meritorious article, even to the extent of making a spurious medicine, risking life and health, and it behoves every one to look that they buy only the genuine.

Zinc. Oxy. Cal. is given to prevent the put on the front of each wrapper the trade-mark of a curved Z entwined around the mortar, and on the seal the signature of J. H. Zeilin & Co. Frauds should always be denounced and the true remedies only upheld.

Ex. Gov. A. H. Stephens' Cousin.

I am first cousin of the late Ex-Governor Alexander H. Stephens, and have been postal clerk on different railroads since 1850. I have been badly sufferer from a cancer on my face, which grew worse until the discharge of matter became profuse and very offensive. I became thoroughly disgusted with blood purifiers and pronounced them humbugs, as I had tried many without relief.

Finally I was induced to use B. B. B. and it removed the cancer and continued to do so until the latter part of April.

The offensive discharge decreased at once and the hardness around the cancer disappeared. It improved my general health and I rapidly gained flesh and strength.

The discharge gradually decreased, and the cancerous mass shrunk in size until nothing remains except a scar to tell the tale of a once dangerous cancer.

All who have seen me since I have commenced the use of B. B. B. bear testimony of my great improvement, and the scar on my face shows that it cured the cancer. I can never thank the manufacturer enough for what it has done for me.

And I cannot say too much in praise of this wonderful medicine. Have tried them all, but B. B. B. stands at the top as a blood purifier.

The above is copied from the Athens Guardian, being the voluntary publication of Mr. James A. Green, which editor Grant indorses:

"Mr. Green is an honest, upright citizen, of Athens, who had a bad cancer, and his numerous friends thought that he could not live long, as the cancer was gradually sapping the foundation of his constitution, but now looks well and hearty."

2 Against 18.

Several physicians have pronounced my disease blood poison, caused by paint or lead in the paint, but they could not cure me. Last Summer I used eighteen bottles of a largely advertised blood medicine, which did me no good than so much water.

I have taken only two bottles of B. B. B. and am proud to say that I have received greater benefit from them than from the eighteen, and am now rapidly recovering. There is no question about the superiority of B. B. B. over all blood remedies.

RECTAL ULCER,

The great bone of humanity, is cured if the patient does not call too late. This is the greatest blessing that has ever been known to man. Little or nothing was known before the BRINKERHOFF discovered. Many patients are treated and cured by the system of the BRINKERHOFF.

It is now a well established fact that many diseases of the stomach, liver, kidney, bladder and rectum, are aggravated by the existence of PILES, FISTULAS, FISURES, and RECTAL ULCERS.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MAY 14, 1887.

We were painfully surprised on Thursday evening last, when Mr. C. C. Furr came into our office and read us a dispatch from his brother, Mr. D. P. Hiter, announcing the sudden death of his wife, Mrs. Sallie Harlan Hiter, which sad event happened in Kansas City, Mo., whither Mr. Hiter and his family had only a few days ago gone to reside.

Mr. Hiter was the daughter of Hon. James Harlan, sr., and the sister of Judge Jno. M. Harlan, of the U. S. Supreme Court, Judge James Harlan, jr., of Louisville, and Mrs. Dr. James G. Hatchitt, of Quenemo, Kansas. She passed through this city on Tuesday, May 3, on her way to her new home, and was, to all appearance, the very picture of health, and was buoyant with hope and happiness at the prospect of locating advantageously at her new home.

For long years she had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, and, though the summons was sudden, it found her not unprepared.

Alas! alas! how soon our brightest hopes are blighted by the icy hand of the grim destroyer. Another playmate of our childhood has gone to the home beyond. May the sod rest gently on her peaceful bosom.

Her remains will reach here this morning on the 10:20 train, and the burial services will take place at our beautiful cemetery, where she will calmly rest by the side of her loved ones who have but gone before.

The friends will please take notice and be governed accordingly.

Our whole community was shocked, on Monday morning, to learn of the sadly sudden death of Miss Henrietta Hempstead, which occurred at the residence of her step-grandfather, Capt. James Blackburn, near Spring Station, Woodford county, on Sunday morning.

It appears that Miss Hempstead, together with her uncle and aunt, Mr. Sam and Miss Henrietta Blackburn, was examining a small rifle of Mr. Blackburn's, when, by some unexplained and unexplainable reason, the gun was discharged, the ball passing through Miss Hempstead's heart, killing her instantly.

Miss Hempstead was a bright, beautiful and accomplished lady, just in the warm flush of young womanhood, greatly admired and loved by all who knew her in this community, where she had lived for several years.

The remains were brought to this city on Monday, and placed in the Flournoy vault, in our cemetery, by the side of her grandfather, Mr. W. E. Blackburn.

The sympathy of our whole people goes out to these afflicted ones. May God comfort them in this sore trial.

The new magistrates and constables, elected last August, have to give bond and qualify on or before the 6th day of June next.

The P. G. & F. Railroad.

We are rejoiced to be able to say the outlook for the building of the new road has taken another and altogether more favorable turn.

The following Board of Directors was elected at a meeting held in this city on Tuesday night last, viz.: Judge Wm. Lindsay, E. L. Samuel, Gen. D. W. Lindsey, Jno. T. Buckley, Jas. N. Miles and R. W. McRory.

This begins to look like real business. It is every way in better shape to meet the popular favor than it was before, as it puts things in the hands of our own people.

It is generally understood that Judge Lindsay will be made the President, and will at once address himself, with his well-known ability and skill, to forwarding the much to be desired end.

Now, good people of Frankfort and Franklin county, is your gold an opportunity. Strike while the iron is hot, and let every stroke be in the same direction. Allow no differences to divert us from the accomplishment of this grand object. We have already delayed too long.

Capt. Geo. W. Daniel, Pension Agent, has received notice that the first certificate of pension yet issued to a Franklin county soldier in the Mexican war, has been issued to Mr. G. Wash. Chambers, of this county, who was a private in Capt. Chambers' company of the 2d Kentucky Infantry. The Commissioner of Pensions is issuing the certificates in alphabetical order, instead of the order in which the applications are filed.

BORN.

In Versailles, on Friday, May 6, 1887, to Mr. Jos. B. Lewis and wife, a son—weight 10 pounds.
In this city, on Friday, May 13, 1887, to Mr. Peter Light and wife, a son.

DIED.

In this city, on Sunday, May 8, 1887, MART SAYLE, infant daughter of Mr. Peter Light, aged 4 years.

"The 31-inch cylinder, three stage engine, 100 ft. of the fastest draft, smoothest running machine, and does the best cleaning of any in the country, and is the only machine that has a thinner wire mesh than 10 ft. without ever breaking the riddles, and the only machine I ever saw that threshed all kinds of grain without ever getting the riddles. It is impossible to recommend it too highly, for after you have seen it, you have not said half."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1887.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, MAY 14, 1887.

A gang of fifteen prisoners was sent out from the Penitentiary, on Wednesday, to work on the Louisville, St. Louis & Texas railroad. They were very closely guarded.

Whitewash and paint brushes, mixed paints, all at rockbottom prices from Gray & Church.

Mary Gray, a colored woman, was arrested by Officer Brown, on Monday last, charged with stealing $45 from Mrs. Rice, a widow lady living on Main street. She was committed to jail to await an examination.

We have a nice lot of country meat which we are selling at the following prices: hams 12 cents, shoulders 7½ cents, sides 10 cents.

2t. C. E. COLLINS & BRO.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held on Monday evening, and it is to be hoped every member will be present, as business of importance will be presented.

Immense stock of cutlery, razors, straps, scissors, at the big anvil house of Gray & Church.

Messrs. Brawner & Buckley have been awarded the contract for putting up the tower and addition to the Methodist Church, their bid being $4,773.

An immense stock of white goods in plaids, stripes and plain, at MRS. SOL. HARRIS'. 35

Mr. Samuel R. Smith, of this city, was one of the Presidents of the Republican State Convention.

The stock of the Frankfort Natural Gas and Oil Company has been placed on the market at $2.00 per share, paid up, and all who desire to invest can be accommodated by calling on the Secretary, Mr. William Cromwell. The company are going actively to work in a few days, and it is hoped that our citizens will subscribe liberally to the stock.

A pleasure to shave with one of the fine razors from Gray & Church.

If you have any cattle, calves, sheep, lambs, hogs, etc., for sale, go and sell them directly to C. W. & H. Finchel's, 35-It.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a strawberry festival on the 24th inst.

Hoes, rakes, lawn mowers, at the anvil house of Gray & Church.

WANTED.—Hogs, cattle, calves, sheep, lambs, only the best, at G. W. & H. Finchel's. 35-It.

Judge W. H. Sneed represented the Seventh Congressional District in the Committee on Organization of the Republican Convention.

Imported Millinery in all shades and styles at MRS. SOL. HARRIS'. 35

Gray & Church have a lot of tins ware at cost. See the prices.

W. K. Utterback wishes to inform the proprietors of distilleries and grist mills that he has the best known composition for dressing mill picks, and will guarantee perfect satisfaction in every job intrusted to him. Call and see him. Shop at the intersection of Second street and Louisville pike. 34-2t.

Ladies who wish to purchase a guaranteed silk dress, in all shades as well as quality, would do well to visit Mrs. Sol. Harris' establishment, as she will certainly astonish you in low prices of black gros grain, all silks, from 75 cents to $1.75 per yard, worth 35 per cent more, every yard guaranteed or money refunded. This is no empty boast, but facts. You will say, how can she sell so much cheaper than any other house; because she has bought them at an imported auction sale during her stay in New York. The dress goods stock in her establishment is complete from a canvas cloth for five cents a yard to an imported plaid or serge; trimmings to match. You certainly must see the round hats and bonnets, and you will imagine you are at Mademe Prince's, in New York, as they are imported and no copies. It is well worth the trouble to call and examine the stock of Chantilla, Medici, Torchon and Oval Laces, also Hosiery and the endless amount of all kinds of Trimming, as you will well paid in the profusion of fine goods and novelties.

We are now handling the celebrated Wiccapoo hose which we guarantee for one year. It will last for many years. Call and give it a trial at C. E. Collins & Bro. 3t.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Call and see our sample Binder, Reaper and Mower. MASTIN BROS.

Editor Roundabout:

Won't you please give the true version of the shooting of Mr. Charles Featherston (thirty years ago) by Jno. N. Crutcher and Dick Tate with a horse pistol and a syringe of ice water.

I have heard many versions of the shooting and would now like to hear the correct one from you, which I hope you will give in the next issue of your paper.

As Crutcher and Tate are the oldest citizens of the Capital of the State, it would doubtless be interesting to the younger generation to hear of the doings of these now prominent citizens who have grown greatly in the hearts of the people. "To live in hearts we leave behind we must not die." As Col. Crutcher and Col. Tate have not died, they still live in the hearts of their people, hence the inquiry as above made.

LUCRETIA MCTABB, SR.

In compliance with the request of Mrs. Mctabb we will give the true and correct facts in this much talked of and laughed over occurrence of the long ago, when these two now staid and sober old fellows were "broths av bys."

It will be remembered by the older citizens that the dining room and kitchen of the old Mansion House were in an ell which ran back from the Main street end of this at that time famous hostelry. There was a very high board fence running along the back of the store rooms fronting on St. Clair street then occupied by W. M. Todd, R. Knott, B. F. Johnson and the Post-office.

Chas. Featherston was employed at his trade as a carpenter (and by the way he was and is a good one), and was engaged in making some repairs in the Mansion House kitchen not far from this high fence. It was an intensely hot evening in the summer.

Crutcher and Tate were, as they are still, fond of a joke. They saw Featherston at work and agreed to play off on him. They went to work and filled a large syringe with ice water, and slipping up to the fence close to Featherston, one of them fired off a double-charged old fashioned horse-pistol and the other at the same time let drive with the ice-water, striking Featherston squarely under the shoulder in the side.

As may well be supposed the tremendous report made by the pistol and the cold water drenching him at the same time Featherston supposed he was killed and dropped over in a dead faint, after yelling out that he was shot.

Physicians were hastily summoned, who found out the cause, and applying the usual remedies, Featherston was soon on his feet, as mad as a March hare and ready to whip the perpetrators of the joke, who kept very still about it until Charlie regained his usual good nature.

It was a long time, however, before he could hear the matter mentioned without his "Irish rising."

The annual sale of Woodburn thoroughbred yearlings took place on Tuesday last. The total amount of the sale was $28,710 for thirty-eight head, being an average of $754.52. The fillies out sold the colts by $106.42 average.

The Democratic Convention removed the State Central Committee's headquarters to Lexington, with Judge S. G. Sharp as Chairman.

Flag Fork.

Maj. J. Williams is reaping a rich harvest in commercial business.

Judge D. Bailey says he has the sweetest creature on earth for a wife.

Our bad boy is left out for want of space, to make room for other matter.

All the sweet little boys and girls go to Tracy's school, and our mugs stay at home.

Our pharmacist, Violett, will add a chemical laboratory to his present drug department.

Mr. Ben Slattery, whose eye was struck by a nail rebounding from a hard piece of wood, is slowly recovering sight.

Postmaster John Hall continues to suffer from his sore arm, yet he bears his affliction with Christian fortitude.

Dr. Birnett restored sight to a lady who has been stone blind for ten years. She now sees to thread a darning needle.

Major J. Williams, an honest merchant of this village, has never been known to send the needy away from his store empty handed.

Some public journals devote columns to such Shylocks as Gould and Vanderbilt. The Roundabout, being elevated on a higher plane, takes a different view.

Mr. Dennis Griffin, of your city, opposite the Capital Hotel, receives credit on the books above for his daily gifts of charity to the penniless poor.

The National Sunday School was again honored by a large number of almost angelic, lovely ladies and handsome young men of highly cultivated manners and morals.

Prayer meetings are being held in nearly every church and school house in the precincts. These weekly meetings are capturing our wives by the wholesales. Long may these miracles continue.

Mr. Silas Hardin will not throw a single die for any man to represent this country unless he is a farmer who will promise to defend the interest of the husbandman.

The venerable Zeke Yocom, of Mugwump fame, could weave a tall story out of this: "All my children are progressing finely, but why don't you send your children to school?" inquired an honest farmer of a selfish neighbor who is just beginning to ape the aristocrats. "Wal, you see, that teacher takes in low trash. No, I expect to keep mine at home, raising his head high into ether."

EDUCATIONAL.

COL. THOS. HUNTER,
Supt. of Public Schools,

Dear Sir—I have the honor to solicit you to invite your brilliant staff of educators to hold one meeting of your Association at Flag Fork.

Your entrance to our village shall be greeted with imperial honors, and you can hold your sessions for one or two days, ad libitum.

The universal admiration of these magnanimous people for unbounded and genuine hospitality needs no comment here.

Amply preparations will be made for your thrice welcome reception, and we modestly await your favorable answer through the courteous editor of the ROUNDABOUT.

I am sir,
Your obedient servant,
HUGH TRACY.

Messrs. Wakefield & West and Wakefield & Rice bought, on the two last tides, 10,329 logs, containing 2,464,578 feet of all kinds, sizes and classes of lumber, which these reliable firms are ready to cut to suit their numerous customers.

Gas Notes.

[From the Indianapolis News.]

The gas well at Pendleton was "shot" with sixty quarts of nitro-glycerine, Saturday with good results. The force threw stones, mud and water to the top of the derrick. Three thousand people visited the scene. The gas company pronounced it as good as any of those at Munette, and say that, when capped, it will be much stronger. The blaze is thirty feet high. Another well will be drilled once.

KNOXSTOWN, April 23.—The gas excitement is running high at this place. At the well is down seventy-five feet and they are running day and night. The people feel confident that gas will be struck.

Another gas company is being formed here to sink another well.

GARRETTSBURG, April 23.—The city council having appropriated $10,000 for boring gas, have contracted with Mr. Runnels to sink a well at once. It will be three squares from the court house. The machinery is being placed on the ground to-day.

Adjoining farms which have formerly been rated at $100 per acre are now held at $400 an acre. Well No. 1 will be shot.

MONROEVILLE, April 23.—Lacey & Griffen were the first men to introduce natural gas for heating and light, and found it more than the most sanguine could expect. At least five hundred strangers witnessed the test, and all were delighted. Carter Harrison, ex-mayor of Chicago, was the guest of Mr. Lacey. Mr. L. C. Bookwalter and Allen O. Myers, of Ohio, and many Indiana gentlemen were here, while other cities and towns were represented.

The light was pronounced superior in every respect to that of artificial gas, producing a steady, clear flame, unaccompanied by odor or smoke, while its heating quality is wonderful.

KOKOMO, April 23.—The boom continues.

Hundreds of capitalists and manufacturers are here, and the town is rapidly increasing in size and suburban property.

Gentlemen from Cincinnati, Mansfield, London, Springfield, Delaware, Dayton and other points in New York and Pennsylvania have bought five hundred thousand dollars' worth of property here this week.

Two mammoth glass factories drove stakes for large buildings here yesterday.

PATRICK CITY, April 23.—The boom continues. The gas wells have been bored, the drilling, and work is suspended pending the arrival of the necessary tools, etc., to recover it. The contractors are working night and day. It is probable that Frank Bearss and others will sink a well in a farm north of this city, for oil, the gas well and other researches indicating oil in paying quantities.

HARTFORD CITY, April 23.—A party from Louisville have bought a tract of land bordering on the city containing six acres, for $350 per acre. The gentlemen will at once make preparations looking toward establishing a large paper mill.

The Huffman house block was sold to a Findlay (O.) syndicate for $5,000. Forty feet, opposite the Huffman, was sold to the same parties for $3,000, and was fronted on Main Street. Dr. J. C. and Jas. (O.) gentlemen for $6,500. Two additional wells will be drilled as soon as the services of a contractor can be secured.

MARION, April 23.—It is claimed that Marion's boom, just four weeks old, is as large as Findlay's was at ten months.

The swarm of business men and capitalists abroad increases constantly, and the traffic in real estate is remarkably brisk. Twenty eight leading sales this week foot up $207,495. Inquiries from manufacturers are pouring in and many have representatives on the ground.

JAMESTOWN, April 23.—Jamestown has it—the natural gas contagion. Shares to the amount of $1,000 have been subscribed.

Business men and citizens will be immediately formed, having a capital stock of $2,500, and drilling operations will soon commence.

DELPHI, April 22.—Though somewhat impeded by water, the gas well here has reached a depth of 500 feet of casing in the rock resembles that at Kokomo.

JONESBORO, April 22.—Over 5,000,000 feet of gas comes hissing out of the well here every day, with a sound like escaping steam. Real estate is booming.

MUNCIE, April 22.—Eight large factories have been located here since the boom began. It is estimated that $1,000,000 worth of real estate has changed hands. Yesterday a large road-scrapers works from a third hand, a threshing machine works from Vermont, and clover-haller works from Ohio, contracted for ground for their buildings.

BRAZIL, April 22.—The city council has granted the oil and gas company exclusive privileges for fifteen years, and boring will begin soon.

HUNTERSON, April 22.—Drilling in well No. 2 is progressing nicely, and it is expected Trenton rock will be reached in a few days.

Said Mr. Mansfield: "We are supplying gas to twenty-nine or thirty cities and towns in the United States. We have been engaged in the business for several years. At some of the points the gas supply is so great right in the cities or towns and at other places, it is piped a considerable distance, the longest being to the city of Buffalo, a distance of eighty-seven miles."

Attention is called to the sad results of hasty plumbing at Pittsburg when the gas boom struck that town a few years ago. Explosions resulting in death and destruction are not unknown.

Natural gas, not being odorous, is often overlooked, and the necessity of perfect plumbing is at once apparent.

Perhaps it would be well enough for the council to place some restrictions upon plumbing. Many citizens are also interested in the preservation of streets as they are, and these insist that the new digging should be in the alleys rather than the streets.

Eventful and Brilliant Career of a Confederate Naval Officer.

[From the Baltimore Sun.]

Col. John Taylor Wood, the distinguished officer of the late Confederate States Navy, who has been visiting friends in Baltimore for the past few days, expects to leave tomorrow for Halifax, N. S., where he is to represent the Frankfort Brick Company.

Col. Wood is a son of Dr. Robert C. Wood, who was for two years during the Civil War Surgeon General of the United States. His mother was a daughter of Gen. Zachary Taylor and a sister of the first wife of Hon. Jefferson Davis.

Col. Wood was born in Franklin, Tenn., April 18, 1847, and served in the Mexican War in the Ohio and Bradywine. When the war between the States began, Col.

Wood was assistant professor of seamanship and gunnery at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., where he was a midshipman.

Col. Wood was a member of the crew of the Monitor when she fought the Merrimac in Hampton Roads, and received the rank of captain.

Col. Wood was assistant to the commanding officer of the Merrimac when she was captured by the Monitor.

Col. Wood was promoted to the rank of major and assigned to the service of the Virginia, serving at the Evansport batteries during the blockade of the Potomac under the command of Capt. Frederick Chardard, of Maryland. He entered the service of the Confederates as a second lieutenant of the Confederate States Navy on October 4, 1861, with the rank of lieutenant, and promoted to the rank of captain.

Religious.

The Baptist Church have commenced a series of meetings, the pastor, Rev. G. F. Bagby, will be assisted by Rev. H. M. Wharton, D. D., of Baltimore, Md.

Dr. Wharton comes here fresh from a powerful revival in Shelbyville, in which the whole community was aroused, and over one hundred persons professed conversion and united with the different churches in that place. His reputation as an earnest, eloquent and powerful preacher is of the first order. We trust that his coming here may result in great good.

Every one who attends these services will be cordially welcomed.

Rev. H. A. M. Henderson, D. D., of New York City, will preach at the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Albert Bagby, of Virginia, brother of Rev. G. F. Bagby, of this city, preached in the Baptist Chapel on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

METHODIST CHURCH.—To-morrow being Children's Day throughout the Southern Methodist Church, the morning service, 10:30, will be devoted to the children; the adult congregation is expected to be present.

Dr. H. A. M. Henderson will preach at the evening service, 7:45 o'clock.

We are indebted to Major Thos. J. Hutchison for the following statement of the number of children in the city of Frankfort within the school age (six to twenty years):

Dr. Sam E. James delivered an exceedingly interesting lecture last Wednesday afternoon to the teachers of the Public School. The subject of the discourse was the purposes, general plan, and hygiene of respiration. The talk, last Thursday morning, on the skin, the teeth, and the hair, was in the highest degree instructive and entertaining. Dr. James takes great interest in the Public School, and is much pleased with the aptness and excellent deportment of the scholars.

The lumber trade is about the only business that is booming straight along here just now. Messrs. Wakefield & West have orders now on file for about fifty car loads, and every mail brings large additions to the orders, so that their mills are taxed to the utmost to meet the demand. We rejoice to note the prosperity of these good men.

Judge W. L. Pence's new saw mill building, in Bellepoint, is rapidly nearing completion, and is now ready for the machinery, which will be first-class in every respect. It is hoped, before a great while, that this mill will commence work, as it gives employment to a number of the citizens of our little neighbor, and the times are so hard that it will materially help to make things better over there.

Dr. W. Seeger, Dentist, No. 723 West Jefferson street, Louisville, Ky., makes fine gold work a specialty.

Several delegates to the Republican Convention from this county are said to have taken in the Derby, or been taken in by it, they don't exactly know which yet.

Two young men engaged in a sparring match in South Frankfort, Wednesday evening, which resulted in a front tooth being knocked out for one and a dislocated knuckle joint for the other.

The third trial of Tom Crittenden, for the killing of Rose Mosby, is now in progress at Taylorsville, Spencer county.

LATER.—Crittenden's case was given to the jury and he was acquitted on Thursday morning.

Rev. Dr. H. A. M. Henderson, of New York City, has been in the city this week, shaking hands with his many old friends, and renewing his acquaintance with the old town. We are glad to note that he is looking well and prospering in his new home.

Mr. George R. Vallandingham, for many years local editor of the Yeoman, and reporter of the legislative proceedings in the Senate of Kentucky, died at the residence of his father, Dr. A. W. Vallandingham, on Lewis street, at 5 o'clock, a. m., on yesterday, aged about 50 years.

We are requested to announce that the annual decoration of the graves of Confederate soldiers will take place on Saturday, May 28. Those desiring to furnish flowers and to assist in this sad duty should call on Mrs. R. M. Aldridge, the President of the Confederate Memorial Association.

The Kentucky Chautauqua Assembly will hold its annual session at Lexington, Kentucky, commencing June 28 and including July 8. We have received the preliminary announcement, and, if the programme is carried out, it will prove a rare treat to our literary and Sunday-school workers, and there will no doubt be a large attendance.

Barrett's Circus exhibited here on Tuesday, according to advertisement, to large audiences, afternoon and evening, and was much above the average show. Jo-Jo, the dog-faced boy, was just as advertised, and was indeed a great curiosity. The ring performances were all very good and the acrobats first-class. In fact, Barrett's is one of the best shows on the road, and well worthy of liberal patronage.

Jas. Andrew Scott, Esq., candidate for Representative, wants his friends to understand that he has not been invited by his competitor, Dr. Duvall, to attend his appointments to address the people, and, therefore, will not hereafter be present at any of them. He will, as soon as court adjourns, make appointments of his own and present his claims for the nomination. He states that Dr. Duvall has refused to divide time with him, and has denied his right to speak at the doctor's appointments, but he says that he will especially invite the doctor to attend when he addresses the people.

FOR SALE.—A house of four rooms, on Logan street, lot 60 by 192 feet, is offered for sale at a bargain. Apply to L. F. Williams, 330 Second street. $8-1t*

Mr. Nat. F. Richardson has removed to his farm on the Louisville pike, two miles from the city, and Mr. Thomas Jordan has rented the cottage on the corner of Shelby and Campbell streets vacated by him.

Messrs. Noel & Jeffers are putting in some handsome improvements to their meat store on Main street, in the shape of a new and improved cooler, which will enable them to furnish at all times the freshest and nicest meats on the market.

Marshal Wm. White, of Lawrenceburg, passed through our city, on Wednesday morning, having in charge one John Edwards (colored,) who killed Wm. Lane some five years ago, in Lawrenceburg, and has since been a fugitive from justice. He was captured in Paris, Texas, where he has been living.

Sheriff's Notice.

The tax books for Franklin county are now in my hands, and all persons are notified to come forward and settle their taxes for the year 1887. The new revenue law requires me to collect and pay over the revenue to the State before the first day of September next, and all not paid by that time will have six per cent. and costs added as a penalty.

Dr. Buckley's Man-Bear.

This wonderful freak of nature is on exhibition in the room in Odd Fellows' Building, on St. Clair street, formerly occupied by Mr. Thos. Rodman, jr., and will remain only to-day, and all those wishing to see him should not fail to attend this afternoon or evening. The price of admission is but ten cents.

The eyes are about half the natural size; about as large as a silver quarter; mouth very large, jaws running down into the neck, as do those of a bear; teeth, a complete absence of molars, possessing only a few front teeth or snags, which protrude from the jaws; the forehead very low, the hair is long, black and shaggy, and unusually thick; the fore-limbs possess six claws, or fingers, upon each hand, which are webbed out to or beyond the second joint, nails split in the middle, and turn claw shape at the end; the thumbs or great-toes of the fore-limbs are about twice the natural length, possessing no joints; the muscles of the fore-limbs are developed underneath the arm instead of on top; the lower limbs are formed as those of an animal, besides there being no knee caps whatever; the feet are almost entirely devoid of heels, and he possesses an unusual degree of strength in hugging or crushing, as does Bruin in attacking his objects of prey.

MY GRAVE.

For me no great metropolis of the dead—Highways, byways, squares and crescents of death. But here I have breathed my last breath, Am comforted with quiet, I, who said, Of weary men's voices and their tread, Of clanging bells and whirr of wheels that Lay me beneath some plot of country grass, Where flowers may spring and birds sing over-head;

Whereeto one coming, some fair eve in spring, May pause a while, friend remember me, And hear few words breathed through the falling light. Spoken by the wind, whispering, "Now he sleeps long, who had so long to fight." —Philip Bourke Marston in April Lippincott's.

THE SUEZ SHIP CANAL.

How the Traffic Along the Waterway is Managed—Enormous Fees.

The number of ships in the canal at the same time is something very great. Dec. 8 last, for example, fifteen steamers cleared the canal, of which seven were outward bound. The previous day nine ships cleared, and the day before seven, so that during those 8th some thirty ships were outward bound to the canal. Sometimes there are as many as forty, and all are under the control of the French gentleman sitting at his desk in an upper chamber at Terreplein. The method of working is excessively simple. Against the wall at one side of the room is a narrow shelf or platform, along which runs a groove. At intervals this trough or groove has deep recesses, and at two of these recesses are of larger size. This trough or groove represents the canal. The recesses are the side-channels. The larger intervals are the Great Bitter lake and Lake Timsah.

When a vessel about to enter the canal at, say, the Suez end, a small toy boat or model three or four inches long is chosen to represent her. A group of these model ships stands ready beside the model canal, each furnished with a flag. About forty have the English flag, others the French flag, and some with other nationalities. As the steamer comes up and her name is known it is written on paper and placed on the toy boat. The whole number of ships thus actually in the canal at any moment can be seen at a glance; and, as the telegraphic signals give notice, the toy boats are moved along, or placed in a siding, or shown traversing one of the lakes at full speed. Signals sent from the office tell the steamer "go ahead" prescribing the siding at which each ship must stop to let another meet and pass it. The official who is on duty keeps the models moving as he receives notice, taking care when perhaps two ships going in opposite directions are both nearing the same siding to give timely warning to the pilots in charge by means of the signal balls and flags at each end of the side-channels. From the office, and to direct which of the two is to lie up and which to proceed.

Barring accidents, the whole arrangement goes like clockwork; the clerk can read off in a moment the name, tonnage, nationality, draught and actual situation of every steamer; he can tell what pilot she has on board, what is her breadth of beam, what rate she is moving at, and everything else which is known to be known about her; and he is able to know when her movements, to prescribe the place where she is to pass the night and the hour at which she is to get under way in the morning, although he does not see her in his life. The fees which vessels pay for passing through the canal are often enormous. Some of the large liners of the Peninsular and Oriental, or Orient service pay as much as £1,800 in making a single transit. For passenger half a napkin, and for silk shillings and fourpence, is charged. Three-fourths of the ships that go through the canal are English.—Saturday Review.

How Stage Snow is Made.

I lately heard some curious facts respecting stage snow, as used in the Paris theatres. Formerly, the head propounder of such theatre caused his subordinates to manufacture it by cutting white paper into little bits, but for many years the papermakers have supplied it in large sacks, and cut up fine by a mechanical chopper. The snow thus prepared is so condensed that it has to be crumbled between the fingers before it can be used. Of late the theatres that are illuminated by the electric light have given up the use of paper snow, as the particles as they might catch fire, were too porous, and they produced no effect. Various substitutes for paper have been tried. Whalebone shavings did very well and were inexpensive, costing only sixty cents a sack. But the best of all possible imitations of snow is found to be the scrap and clippings of kid left over from cutting out gloves. They float in the air, descending with very remarkable slowness, and they cling readily to the garments of the actors. These clippings are furnished to the Grand Opera by several of the leading glove houses of Paris, and cost $2 a sack. Paris Letter.

Scorbutic poison can be carried hundreds of miles without the personal contact of individuals. It retains its vitality for months and even years, but can be destroyed by intense heat, and it easily dissolves in steam, pitch, hot fresh air, and by chlorine sulphuric acid, etc. Dogs and horses have the disease, and it probably can be communicated by them to man. The individual either inhales the poison or swallows it.—Dr. J. M. Keating in Babyhood.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

There is said to be considerable of a hitch somewhere about the building of the Georgetown extension of the Versailles and Midway railroad, and now is the time for our people to make the most of the opportunity and get things into shape to commence building the Frankfort, Georgetown and Paris road.

The submission of the proposed subscription, by the county of Fayette, to the Kentucky Union Railroad was denied by the magistrates of Fayette county, by a vote of 9 to 5. Great indignation was aroused by this action, and a large meeting of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce was held to protest against it.

A horse was stolen from Mr. A. G. Jeffers, on the Versailles pike, on Tuesday night, and was found near Ducker Station Wednesday afternoon. It is supposed to have been ridden to that neighborhood by some one returning from the circus.

Stedmanville.

Crops generally looking fine. Everybody planting corn.

Mr. Case, of Finley, Ohio, is sojourning in our neighborhood.

Old Mag, Uncle Mat, Carter's grey mare, has a fine King of Elkhorn colt.

Many of our boys wanted to attend the Derby, but could not raise the odds.

Fishing is not good this spring at Stedman's dam, judging from what there has been caught.

Miss Annie Thomson is visiting Mrs. H. G. Mattern, of Frankfort, this week.

Mrs. South Trimble, of Wood-lake, visited her mother at this place last Sunday.

Mr. McClyer Allan talks of going to Salida, Col., in a few days with the view of locating.

Miss May Morgan returned home after an absence of three months, visiting relatives in Colorado and Missouri.

The many friends of Jake Cox will be glad to hear he has recovered from the measles, and will start home shortly. He is now in West Texas.

Any one wanting one or two barrels of fine, a No. 1 vinegar can get same at a fair price by calling on the editor of the ROUNDABOUT.

Cornelius Cox caught four red foxes in steel traps the other night. Several of them gnawed their legs off and got out, much to the disgust of the chicken raisers.

Rachel Russell, the fine Woodford Abdallah mare, property of Mr. L. L. Cox, foaled a bay filly colt May 11th, by Onward, and our judgment is that it is the best colt ever foaled in this precinct.

What has become of the gas well? Some enterprising Yankee will surprise your Frankfort company if you don't keep an eye open. We have got it and intend to have the wells opened, and don't you forget it.

Can any of the readers of this paper inform its editor where he can find a sorrel yearling colt, with deformed ears. He was traded here on the streets at the February county court. Any one having said colt can find a purchaser by calling on the editor.

Sunday-school was conducted by Bro. Griffith Stedman, at Mount Pleasant, last Sunday. Bro. Burdin, the Superintendent being absent attending the convention at Louisville. Bro. S. makes a good substitute for anything.
